

ROZ CORRAL PRESS CLIPPINGS

"With a voice as cozy as a goose-down duvet and as clear and sparkling as spring water, Roz Corral is that rare sort of jazz singer who makes it all seem deceptively easy...unfailing charisma...the panache of a born story teller..."

Christopher Loudon, JazzTimes

"... a singer of graceful flow and buoyant spirit"

Steve Smith, Time Out New York

"Her recording debut proves a winner, as Corral dives in and comes up full of life."

Jim Santella, Cadence Magazine

"She finds the heart of a song's message, as contained in the lyrics; then she finds the best way to convey that message musically, in a timbre adult, throaty, and knowing."

Neil Tesser, Co-host Listen Here! The public-radio jazz review

"Roz Corral has wonderful pitch, a velvet tone, world-class diction and a great sense of swing. But more importantly, she really connects to everything she sings and makes it come alive and sound new. In this day of young wanna-be jazz singers, Roz Corral is the real deal."

Fred Hersch, pianist

"Roz always goes to the heart of a song."

Mark Murphy, jazz vocalist
